AFFILIATION TYPES EXPLAINED

There are a number of different types of affiliation which Motorcycling Queensland offers to clubs, individuals and other organizations. These include:

Full Member - Competition Club

This type provides full affiliation to MQ for incorporated, not-for-profit clubs which conduct competition events. Affiliation benefits include the right to nominate delegates to MQ Council and voting rights in all postal ballots. Clubs must meet minimum membership requirements to affiliate and to renew their affiliation annually. The club's constitution must acknowledge the roles of MQ and MA as the governing bodies for motorcycle sport and recreation in Queensland and Australia respectively.

Full Member – Commercial Recreational Club

This type provides full affiliation to MQ for incorporated, not-for-profit clubs which do not conduct competition events although they may conduct recreational events. Affiliation benefits include the right to nominate delegates to MQ Council and voting rights in all postal ballots. Clubs must meet minimum membership requirements to affiliate and to renew their affiliation annually. The club's constitution must acknowledge the roles of MQ and MA as the governing bodies for motorcycle sport and recreation in Queensland and Australia respectively.

Associate Member - Recreational Organization (Non Motorcycle Group)

This type provides associate member affiliation to MQ for incorporated and unincorporated, not-for-profit clubs, groups and associations which conduct recreational events. Affiliation benefits do not include the right to nominate delegates to MQ Council or have any voting rights. No minimum membership requirements or constitutional requirements apply.

Associate Member - Recreational Private Promoter

This type provides associate member affiliation to MQ for individuals and incorporated organizations which conduct commercial recreational events. Affiliation benefits do not include the right to nominate delegates to MQ Council or have any voting rights. No minimum membership requirements or constitutional requirements apply. Use Private Promoter Application Form.

Associate Member - Competition Private Promoter

This type provides associate member affiliation to MQ for individuals and incorporated organizations which conduct commercial competition events. Affiliation benefits do not include the right to nominate delegates to MQ Council or have any voting rights. No minimum membership requirements or constitutional requirements apply.
