Junior 125cc /250cc Declaration Form

This is a legal document that may affect your rights. Read it carefully and do not sign it unless you understand it.
ANY FALSE DECLARATION MAY RESULT IN PENALTIES BEING ISSUED.
ALL DETAILS SUBMITTED WILL BE CHECKED

The General Competition Rules of Motorcycling Australia outline the Junior coaching program, which requires that competitors on a 125cc 2 Stroke or 250cc 4 Stroke machine must have completed 5 hours of coaching on each machine. In the initial year of operation, riders competing on these machines prior to the introduction of the Junior Coaching Program on 1st July 2006 will be deemed to have completed the required 5 hours coaching. Riders competing on these machines on or after 1st July 2006 will be required to show proof of 5 hours coaching on their machine before being permitted to compete. Only riders who have actually competed (not practiced) prior to the 1st July 2006 will be eligible to complete this declaration. Riders, if requested will need to prove competition experience.
